

ISKRA ZAŠČITE

Iskra Zaščite is one of Europe's and world's leading manufacturer of SURGE PROTECTIVE DEVICES for a variety of systems. It takes pride in its extensive coverage of products for the protection of electrical and electronic devices in the industry, commercial buildings, homes and utilities.

Product Families

- Surge protection for low voltage protection systems
- Surge protection for signaling networks
- Surge protection for telecommunication networks, terminals and equipment
- Pro GRID series - power quality accessories

Applications

- Surge protection for industrial facility
- Surge protection for biogas plants
- Surge protection for wastewater management
- Surge Protection for airports
- Surge protection for video surveillance systems
- Surge protection for mobile base stations
- Surge protection for wind turbine systems
- Surge protection for photovoltaic systems
- Surge protection for households
- Lightning and surge protection for railway stations

Strengths

- Partnership with MOV manufacturer VARSI
- Own production of GDT
- Own R&D equipment and testing laboratory, including New High Voltage Laboratory
- Professional services with high skilled Engineers
- Unlimited attention to innovations and new solutions are constantly encouraged
- Members of national and international lightning and surge protection committees
- Maximal flexibility and custom made solutions

Distribution by ELWET. Please ask for price and delay.

